

LPA Choice Book Nomination Form

Title of book: _____ Author: _____

Call Number: _____ ISBN#: _____ No. of Pages: _____

Current Booklist level: _____ Booklist level recommendation: _____ Is this book considered a classic? _____

Awards this book has won: _____

This book nominated by: _____ Contact Phone Number: _____ Cell/Work: _____

General criteria for works of fiction: (check all that apply) _____ the book has an original, well constructed plot; well developed, multidimensional character(s); and a setting that is well established and clearly defined _____ the book teaches the following values: _____

_____ the overall message of the book is true, or just, or moral

_____ the book nourishes the intellect and stimulates the imagination _____ this book has a timeless quality that spans all ages and allows it to be enjoyed by all _____ the book enriches the concepts and curriculum taught at LPA (explain) _____

Please note any inappropriate/sensitive situations (alcohol, drugs, sex, violence, death) presented in the book (include page numbers and/or make copies of text)

Please note any inappropriate language; racial slurs, profanity, etc. (include page numbers and/or make copies of text)

For juvenile fiction and picture books: (check all that apply) _____ the book is appealing to children.

_____ the book reinforces the following concepts: (circle) numbers counting rhyming sequencing comparing patterning vocabulary skills making predictions reading out loud or other concepts _____ _____ the illustrations are artistically stimulating.

_____ the illustrations present an excellent pictorial representation of the story.

_____ the illustrations introduce an artistic techniques/mediums, such as watercolor, oil, collage, pen and ink, etc.

For non-fiction: (check all that apply) _____ the information in the book is accurate _____ the information is conducive to independent reading and learning (not requiring extensive background knowledge or explanation by an adult)

_____ the book enriches the concepts and curriculum taught at LPA (explain) _____

_____ the book reinforces the following concepts: (circle) numbers counting rhyming sequencing comparing patterning making predictions other _____

Brief summary of book (continue on reverse side if needed):

